

Greatscapes Partners with Ruppert Landscape, Bringing New Opportunities to Winchester

For Immediate Release:

Contact: James Printz (540) 888-3138

Winchester, VA – August 12, 2025 – Greatscapes Property Management Group is excited to announce that we have partnered with Ruppert Landscape, a nationally recognized leader in commercial landscaping services. This partnership will provide enhanced resources and opportunities for our employees and customers while preserving the values and dedication to service that have defined our business for nearly 30 years.

“This partnership is a proud moment for us,” said James Printz, President of Greatscapes. “Ruppert shares our belief that people are the foundation of great service, and they are committed to investing in our team and our community. By joining forces, we’re gaining the resources of an industry-leading company while keeping the local relationships, personal service, and principles that have been our hallmark since day one.”

Phil Key, CEO of Ruppert Landscape, said the feeling is mutual. “James and his team have built something special in Winchester. We’re excited to welcome them into the Ruppert family and to work together to serve even more customers in the Virginia market.”

For Greatscapes customers, nothing will change. “I’ll still be leading our team right here in Winchester, and our customers and community can expect the same service and commitment they’ve always known,” said Printz.
